

Express 1 Adds the United States Postal Service to its Expense Reduction Savings Verticals

Express 1 has announced the United States Postal Service will become its newest partner in their Profit Plus Program. "Express 1 Profit Plus" is a program that reduces key expenses for businesses. It cost nothing to do business with Express 1. They offer companies the opportunity to work with some of the most recognizable names in the world, and at the same time reduce their expenses by saving significant money.

Salt Lake City, Utah (PRWEB) July 13, 2009 -- Express 1 has been selected to take part in a government partnership for their Overnight and Priority 2-3 Day small package services. There are just a few other companies that market the bulk mail services online, however nobody markets their services business-to-business like Express 1.

"We are excited about our partnership with the United States Postal Service. They have been connecting people and businesses since the nation's founding with a mission that has remained the same for more than 230 years — to provide trusted, affordable and universal service. Now with Express 1's account representative force, we can educate and offer businesses the opportunity to work with two of most trusted name in America, the USPS and Express 1," said Bret Miller, President and CEO.

For 15 Years and over 100,000 businesses, Express 1 has been a business savings specialist. The addition of USPS parcel services to Express 1's freight vertical is a value-add offering to both freight and non-freight customers. The U.S. Postal Service delivers more mail to more addresses in a larger geographical area than any other company in the world. They deliver to more than 149 million residences, businesses and Post Office Boxes in every state, city, town and borough in this country, as well as to American Samoa, Federated States of Micronesia, Guam, Palau, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, Republic of Marshall Islands and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Together, the United States Postal Service and Express 1 makes it easy for businesses to optimize their shipping operations. Businesses can print and pay for postage online, schedule pick-ups, and track all shipments from Express 1's E1Ship Multi-Carrier Shipping Solution. Express 1 provides businesses with a wide range of efficient and cost-saving benefits with a Multi-Carrier Shipping System specifically designed to meet their current and evolving shipping needs.
