

Express 1 Adds the United States Postal Service to it's E1Ship Multi-Carrier Shipping Solution

Express 1 has announced the United States Postal Service will become the newest carrier to be added into it's E1Ship Multi-Carrier Shipping Solution. Their E1Ship Web Portal is an innovative Multi-Carrier Shipping Solution that enables businesses to quote and ship anything from an express envelope to a full truckload – all from one shipping portal.

Salt Lake City, Utah (PRWEB) July 20, 2009 -- Express 1 has announced a partnership with the United States Postal Service that will allow businesses access to Overnight and Priority 2-3 Day Small Package services through Express 1's E1Ship Multi-Carrier Shipping Solution.

Customers who currently ship with other carriers can simply log onto E1Ship and tender their shipments immediately by using a credit card. Using the cost-effective E1Ship Multi-Carrier Shipping Solution streamlines the entire shipping process, increasing a company's ability to effectively manage vast numbers of shipments without sacrificing customer service or quality. E1Ship is the fast way to go from order, to label, and to tracking without any changes to current procedures or intensive training.

The United States Postal Service and Express 1 make it easier for businesses to optimize their shipping operations. Businesses can print and pay for postage online, schedule pick-ups and track all shipments from Express 1's E1Ship Multi-Carrier Shipping Solution. Express 1 provides businesses a wide range of efficient and cost-saving benefits with a Multi-Carrier Shipping System specifically designed to meet their current and evolving shipping needs.
